THREE SERVICES ARE PLANNED

Building Is at North Capitol and U Streets-Noted Workers in the Church to Officiate-Lectures of Aloysius Club on Religion and Socialism Begin-Other Services.

The chapel of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Atonement, at North Capitol and U streets, will be dedicated tomorrow with three special services. Rev. I. O. Baker, pastor of the church, will consecrate the building at the morning service at 11 o'clock, and Rev. J. A. W. Haas, D. D., president of Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa., will deliver the dedicatory sermon

Rev. Dr. Haas is one of the most aggressive men in the Lutheran church, and an educator, speaker, and lecturer of wide reputation. Since assuming the presidency of Muhlenberg College he has raised that institution to the first rank of the schools of its class, and greatly extended its influence and usefulness. As an author, he has made many valuable contributions to literature, serving as Mount Airy Seminary, in the compilation of the Lutheran Cyclopedia. The octet of the church will render special music

Postal Officials to Arrange More Uniform Charges.

The Post-office Department announce yesterday that on January 1, it would begin the readjustment of rentals of postoffice boxes throughout the country, in accordance with a plan which it deems will be highly satisfactory.

It is not the purpose to increase the sum total of revenue, but to put in force a more uniform system of rates. The new rates will be based on the receipts of the offices. The schedule adopts as forts and Break Up Divine Services small fourth-class post-offices 10 cents per on Sundays-Parishioners' Homes quarter. From this the rates advance until they reach a charge for small lock boxes at one post-office, New York City, of $4 a quarter.
